

Baritone Audition Packet

Dear Applicant,

Congratulations on taking your first step towards being a part of the Golden Empire Drum & Bugle Corps from Bakersfield College! I'm very excited that you want to join the corps, and I hope your audition experience is one that is informative, challenging, and ultimately positive!

What this packet IS:

The following packet will provide you with some preliminary info and/or exercises that will help you prepare for the workshop/auditions that will take place soon. Some of these exercises will be used all season, and others may only be used as supplemental material. You should become familiar with the material but be ready for additional info.

What this packet is NOT:

This packet is not a comprehensive collection of the technique program you will be learning this season. We will supplement this with more advanced exercises and of course a wealth of additional training throughout the season. We don't expect you to be able to perform this material perfectly when you audition. Drum corps is all about working hard to be the best we can be...and that is an ongoing process.

Next steps:

- Fill out the interest form at geperformingarts.org/join if you haven't already.
- Review this packet and start to prepare for auditions.
- Check geperformingarts.org and our social media channels for updates.
- Be ready to learn, work hard, and have fun!

Thanks again for taking the first step towards a challenging and rewarding experience! I look forward to meeting you soon. If you have any questions at all please contact me personally at theasley@geperformingarts.org for more info.

Sincerely,

Tim Heasley
Director of Marching Arts Ensembles
Bakersfield College

- Three-ring binder: This contains all music handouts in organized clear sheet protectors. Any information you could possibly need should be in this binder.
- Water jug: Each member is required to have a RED water jug no smaller than 1/2 gallon. These jugs must be present at all rehearsals.
- Black Gloves: These must be worn when handling a corps-owned instrument. It is important that your gloves remain in good condition and are replaced as necessary.

Mouthpieces

In order to achieve the most uniform section sounds, we have recommended specific mouthpieces for the brass team. You are NOT required to purchase a new mouthpiece to audition. The mouthpieces in bold are what we recommend for new brass musicians. Our baritones accept both large and small shank mouthpieces. Our euphoniums accept large shank mouthpieces only.

Trumpet: Hammond 5ML /Bach 3C or 4ML /Bach 1-1/2C

Mellophone: Hammond 5mp or 6mp, Yamaha 14f4

Baritone: Hammond 12ML/ Schilke 51D

Euphonium: Hammond 12XL / Schilke 51D

Tuba: Hammond 30XL / Conn Helleberg

Listening skills:

As a performer in the brass ensemble, you will have many listening responsibilities to ensure our collective success.

- Individual (listen to your own sound)
- Trio (listen to and blend with the people immediately around you)
- Section and Ensemble (Listen for balance, shape, style, blend, and timbre.)

Breathing:

Proper breathing is essential for the success of the brass ensemble. We incorporate breathing exercises and patterns into our daily routine. To maintain a consistent approach, we keep the following in mind at all times:

- Take a full breath whenever possible
- Air NEVER stops. It is always moving either in or out
- Exhale and release stale air as often as you can
- Air should be warm, dark, and relaxed.
- Air should fill the bottom quadrants first
- Breathe down and out and then fill up

Air Speed:

There is a difference in the speed of air based on the range that is being played. The speed of the air motivates the speed of the vibration that is created:

- Faster air for higher notes
- Slower air for lower notes

Air Volume:

While we always aim to support our sound with our air, there is a difference in the amount of air flowing into the horn when the player changes volumes:

- More air volume for louder dynamics / Less air volume for softer dynamics

Stagger Breathing:

Stagger breathing is a technique that is used to create a wall of consistent and balanced sound. The basic rules of stagger breathing are:

- When you breathe, take a full breath
- The breath must be in time
- When you breathe, leave a note out rather than playing a partial note value
- Sneak in and sneak out of the sound texture
- Never breathe on a barline
- Never breathe between phrases
- Do not breathe at the same time as the other members of your trio
- If you have assigned breathing counts, you must use them

Releases:

The mechanism to release a note is initiated by reversing the direction of the air. A clear and resonant ensemble release can be achieved through the simple act of breathing together.

- Breathe in through the corners of the embouchure to release
- Maintain your air speed all the way to the breath
- Stay relaxed! Avoid tension in the embouchure or throat

Rehearsal movement and posture:

- Maintain a lifted posture and hold your horn correctly whenever you play
- To perform a step out, take two steps in any direction and then two steps back to the original position and mark time.
- Marking time is an active process. Always prioritize the timing of your feet
- Perform all body movement/horn manuals
- Again, you will be expected to hold your instrument correctly at all times. This may require a certain amount of physical conditioning which should occur on your own time.

Always look great, Always sound great.

Articulation: It is vital that we all commit to a uniform method of articulation. This definition must remain the same even while volume, tempo, or range are pushed to extremes.

- Proper air support must be present in order to clearly articulate a note
- Start every note with a “dAH” sound
- Strike at the point where the gums meet the upper front teeth

Articulation / Style Chart

Tenuto (connected) - There is no decay and the notes touch.
“Full duration, full tone.”

Staccato (detached) - There is no decay and the tone length is 1/2 the value of the note.
“Equal tone, equal space”.

Accented (emphasis) - The beginning of the note is slightly louder, there is a slight decay, and the notes touch. “Dah”

Marcato (rooftop accent) - The beginning of the note is slightly louder, there is no decay, and the tone length is 1/2 the value of the note.
“ Louder tone, equal space”.

Health and Fitness:

This activity is physically demanding.

You should be making every effort to be as physically prepared and healthy as possible. We encourage you to evaluate your habits, including your diet and physical conditioning program to make sure you are setting yourself up for the highest levels of success.

Injury prevention begins with an excellent off-season conditioning program. You will need to increase your cardiovascular endurance, flexibility, and total body strength. Don't wait. Start Now. Keep a record of what you do and monitor your progress. You will be expected to perform at a high level as both a musician and an athlete. Train accordingly.

Assignments between camps:

Once you receive a contract, you will be expected to complete weekly check-in assignments on the BAND app. These assignments will include videos of various exercises or responding to questions that will help you get to know the other members of the section.

Other considerations:

- We want you to be successful and have an amazing drum corps experience. Every task, assignment, definition, or correction that you are given is meant to help achieve that goal.
- Be a good teammate.
- Be tolerant of others and strict with yourself. Focus on holding yourself to the highest possible standard at all times.
- Be prepared. Know what you are required to have, know, and do before every rehearsal.
- Respond to feedback and do your best to immediately implement any required adjustments or corrections.
- Have a great time! Drum corps is a life-changing experience. We will work hard, learn a lot, and have fun doing it.
