

GE Fundraising Info 2017

Annual Sponsorship Campaign

Receive free flyers, letter sample, and information on how to contact potential sponsors.

- Flyers/Letters
 - Flyers are available for pickup at all rehearsals
 - A sample letter and sponsorship ideas can be downloaded from <http://www.geperformingarts.org/forms>
 - You can mail these materials or deliver them in person to potential sponsors
- Online (PayPal)
 - Sponsors can donate online via our website:
 - <http://www.geperformingarts.org/sponsorship-campaign.html>
- Crowdfunding (Piggybackr)
 - This is an email/social media driven version of the campaign
 - Members will receive an email invitation to set up and manage their own fundraising page.

Candy Sales

Boxes of World's Finest Chocolate can be checked out at camps.

- Check out boxes at the end of rehearsals/camps (no upfront cost)
- Return candy money ($60) before rehearsals/camps and receive a credit for 100% of the profit ($30)
- All candy sales must be completed (and proceeds returned) by May 31st.

Merchandise Sales

Members are able to sell GE merchandise to friends, family, and other supporters.

- A merch fundraising form will be distributed during the winter camps
- Members collect pre-orders (supporters pay in advance for their items)
- Orders are submitted, and members are credited with the profit of the sales.
- Details will be presented by our merchandise coordinator during the camp season.

Additional Fundraisers

Throughout the season more fundraising opportunities may become available. Members are highly encouraged to participate.
